1. Purpose.

This regulation prescribes criteria and procedures governing appointment, assignment, education, and administration of commissioned and warrant officers which may be in variance or in addition to requirements contained in other National Guard regulations.

2. Authority.

Appendix 460(b)(2) and (h), title 50, United States Code.

3. Federal recognition and related personnel actions.

The policies, criteria, and procedures in NGR 600-100, NGR 600-101, and AR 135-155 apply respectively to the appointment and promotion of commissioned and warrant officers assigned to the Selective Service Section, STARC.

4. Position authorization.

Positions in Selective Service Sections, STARC are authorized IAW appendix A, NGR 10-2, Selective Service Category.

5. Officer branch designation.

Officers assigned to TDA positions in Selective Service Sections will serve in Staff Specialist Branch (specialty skill identifier 41B), except that:

a. Second lieutenants shall be federally recognized in any branch and specialty other than Staff Specialist.

b. Commissioned officers whose long-term career development is not planned in the Staff Specialist Branch may be substituted in these 41B positions IAW appendix E, NGR 600-100, Commissioned Officer Substitution Table. Officers substituted must be examined by the Officer Personnel Classification Board (OPCB) IAW paragraph 6-7, NGR 600-100.

6. Military educational requirement for assigned officers.

a. Commissioned officer assigned to Selective Service Sections must meet the minimum educational requirements for promotion prescribed in table 2-2, AR 135-155.

b. Newly assigned commissioned and warrant officers must complete phases I and II of the Selective Service New Officer Training Program within 6 months of assignment. Certificates of completion will be furnished by the Director, Selective Service System. Warrant officers assigned to Selective Service Section must also meet the minimum educational requirements for promotion prescribed in NGR 600-101.

7. Advance notification of mobilization assignment.

a. The Director of Selective Service issues advance notification of mobilization assignments to all Reserve Forces personnel who are assigned to the Selective Service System. Accordingly, the State Adjutant General will immediately forward a copy of all orders assigning personnel to TDA positions in the Selective Service Section to the Director of Selective Service, ATTN: MSP, and to the appropriate Selective Service Regional Headquarters. Upon receipt of such orders, a record will be created on the Selective Service Reserve Forces Automated Personnel System (RFAPS), and the officer will be given a mobilization assignment. The Director of Selective Service will then forward the officer a mobilization assignment letter specifying his/her mobilization location and duty position title, and a copy of the Selective Service Reserve Agreement. A copy of the mobilization assignment letter will be maintained by the Selective Service National Headquarters and the Regional Headquarters. In the event the officer's mobilization location or duty position changes, a new mobilization assignment letter will be issued and forwarded to the officer. The officer will sign the Reserve Agreement and return it to the Director of Selective Service, ATTN: MSP.

b. Commissioned and warrant officers assigned to positions in the Selective Service Sections are required to report for extended active duty with the Selective Service System within 72 hours following declaration of war or national emergency.

c. Mobilization reporting instructions become effective immediately upon announcement by the Secretary of the Army that officers of the Army National Guard of the United States assigned to the Selective System, who have been issued advance mobilization assignments, will proceed to their designated mobilization assignments. This announcement will be made through established news media following a declaration of war or proclamation of a national emergency. In the event of a surprise attack on this country, military personnel will comply with mobilization instructions without waiting for further announcements.

d. Upon declaration of war or the proclamation of a national emergency, the Director of Selective Service will request the Department of the Army issue orders to extended active duty for each commissioned and warrant officer who has been given an advance mobilization assignment.

e. When an officer assigned to a Selective Service Section is transferred or separated, the State Adjutant General will immediately forward a copy of transfer or separation orders to the Director of Selective Service, ATTN: MSP, and to the appropriate Selective Service Regional Headquarters.
